

The Human Rights Council is an inter-governmental body within the United Nations system responsible for strengthening the promotion and protection of human rights around the globe and for addressing situations of human rights violations and make recommendations on them. It has the ability to discuss all thematic human rights issues and situations that require its attention throughout the year. It meets at the UN Office at Geneva. The Council is made up of 47 United Nations Member States, which are elected by the UN General Assembly.

1) Racism against the black in the USA

Racism towards black / dark skinned people in the US has been going on since many centuries when first, slavery had started. Nowadays, discrimination of black / dark skinned people in the community of the US has prevented many from achieving their purposes and goals in their lives.

2) Spying on people's privacy

Edward Snowden, a former CIA employee, admitted that he was the source of the NSA leaks. The leaks uncovered details about PRISM, a secret program that gave NSA direct access to the servers of Facebook, YouTube, Skype, Google, Apple, Yahoo and other companies. Such access allowed the government to retrieve emails, photographs, and documents of millions of users. These companies denied that they offered the government "back door" access to their networks. Britain's Government Communications Headquarters (GCHQ)—an agency similar to the NSA—had access to data gleaned through PRISM. Is Snowden a hero or a traitor..?